The Daily Courant.

Saturday, Auguſt 18. 1722.

THE following Addreſs of the Town and County of Poole, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Trenchard, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Town and County of Poole.

PERMIT, Great Sir, the Inhabitants of this your ancient Borough to renew their Aſſurances of a firm unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, as often as the open Attacks or dark Deſigns of your Enemies make our Zeal to be ſeaſonable.

To the Great and Glorious William we owe our Religion, our Liberties, and our Properties; and to the ſame we owe the Security of All, by his invaluable Legacy, the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

That Legacy which he ſo kindly has left, we will with our Arms defend, and our Fortunes maintain, or periſh together in the Common Deſtruction.

Our Lives without our Liberties are not worth preſerving.

Our Liberties entirely depend on the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

That Succeſſion can have no Exiſteance, but in your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Houſe.

What therefore our Liberties depend on, our Lives and Fortunes ſhall be ſacrificed in the Defence of; even your Majeſty's Perſon, your Family, and your Government.

London, Auguſt 18.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Vienna, Aug. 12. Their Imperial Majeſties and the Archdutcheſſes are returned to the Favorita, and were complimented on their Arrival by the Empreſs Dowager, and the Chief of the Nobility. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria is expected here the 16th Inſtant, and 'tis ſaid that his Marriage will be conſummated on the 7th of the next Month at the Favorita, after which the Emperour will ſet out for Presbourg. Letters from Munich ſay, that a Triumphal Arch and other Preparations are making there againſt the Arrival of the new Electoral Princeſs, whoſe Entry is deſigned to be magnificent. The Cardinal de Saxe-Zeits continues at Maria-Zell, for the Recovery of his Health; in the mean time, Cardinal Czacky aſſiduouſly forwards the Emperour's Affairs in the Hungarian Diet. On the 6th Inſtant, between 9 and 10 at Night, ſo great a Number of Graſhoppers lodged in the Inward Court, near the Emperour's Apartments at the Favorita, as gave uneaſy Apprehenſions to ſeveral Perſons in the Palace, and likewiſe to the Soldiers; the two other Courts of the Palace had none, and it was the Work of the whole Night and the next Day to clear the Court of them. An Expreſs was ſent to the Caſtle of Murſtatten, belonging to Count Gundacker d'Althan, to give their Imperial Majeſties an Account of this Matter. It is reported, that theſe Inſects were ſeen very early the Day before at Munckendorff, between three and four Leagues from this City.

Bruſſels, Aug. 20. The Reports that have been lately raiſed of the Emperour's having granted a Charter for eſtabliſhing an Eaſt-India Company in theſe Parts, are entirely blown over; however, the private Traders here being encouraged by the laſt Sale of their Indian Goods, deſign to enlarge that Commerce.

Paris, Aug. 22. 'To-morrow the Abbé de 'Rohan is to be conſecrated Archbiſhop of 'Rheims, in the Noviciate Church of the Jeſuits; 'the Ceremony is to be performed by his Uncle 'the Cardinal de Rohan, who arrived here the '19th in the Evening; and the Biſhops of Soiſſons and Senlis, two Suffragans of Rheims, are 'to be his Aſſiſtants: When the Ceremony is 'ended the Prelates and Eccleſiaſticks who aſſiſt at 'it, are to be entertained at a noble Dinner. The 'Regiment of French-Guards is ordered to encamp in the Plain of Sablons for three or four 'Days, that they may be in a Readineſs to do the 'like at Rheims, at the King's Coronation. The 'Abbé de Broglie, Brother to the Lieutenant-General of that Name, is ordered into Exile, upon 'Account, as 'tis ſaid, of his having uttered undue 'Speeches againſt the Government. The King 'has ordered a Number of the Invalids to repair 'to Rheims, to Guard till his Majeſty's Arrival 'the Royal Habits and other things to be uſed at 'the Coronation. All the Embroiderers and 'Workfolks are required to make the utmoſt Diſpatch in finiſhing the fine Cloths and Furniture 'they have in Hand. The King of Spain has revoked the Prohibition that was laid upon French 'Ships entring the Ports of Cadiz, and others, 'upon Account of the Contagion, and has granted 'Liberty to import to that Kingdom Linnens from 'Britany and Normandy, to the great Joy of the 'Traders of both Nations. Abundance of rich 'Goods and Furniture is bought up here for the 'uſe of Prince Don Carlos his Spouſe, againſt the 'Time of her Departure for Spain. The 'Dutcheſs of Bouillon who was brought to bed a 'few Days paſt, died the 8th Inſtant in the Afternoon, to the extreem Grief of the Duke her 'Husband, who is in Auvergne; this Lady was his '3d Wife, and his two former alſo died in Childbed. 'Tis ſaid the Marqueſs de Saillant is about 'laying other extraordinary Wagers. The Horſe 'and Foot Watch of this City, take up every 'Night in the publick Houſes and other looſe 'Places, all ſorts of idle Perſons, Gameſters, and 'ſturdy Beggars, in order to purge the City from 'theſe dangerous People, who, under the Pretence of unavoidable Poverty, commit Roberies 'and Murthers. M. Audrans, the King's Painter, 'is ordered to new Paint the Cieling of the Great 'Chamber of Parliament, in Sky-Blue, ſtrewed 'with golden Flowers de Luce; and to regild all 'the Relievo-work, and other, which border the 'Cieling. The King has likewiſe given Order to 'rebuild the Chimney-Piece in that Chamber with 'fine Marble, and on the Frontiſpiece of it, is to 'be carved in white Marble his Majeſty's Figure at full Length: The whole is to be finished by February next. On the 12th Instant the Body of the late Dutchess of Bouillon was conveyed in magnificent Pomp to her Parish Church of St. Sulpice, 'tis to continue there some Days in a Chapel illuminated with Tapers, hung with Mourning and adorned with Escutcheons, and to be interred afterwards in the Vault belonging to the Bouillon Family, built by the deceased Cardinal of that Name in his Abbey of Cluni. Sig. Morozini, ordinary Ambassadour from Venice, is daily expected to relieve the two Venetian Ambassadours Extraordinary, who are at present here and preparing to make their publick Entrance. Prince Kurakin the Czar's late Ambassadour at the Hague is newly arrived, and is to reside with the same Character at this Court. Prince Dolhorucky the late Muscovite Ambassadour here, is preparing to return Home. It is assured that the Abbé de Rohan Guimene will, notwithstanding his Promotion to the Archbishoprick of Rheims, be allowed to keep his Canonship of Strasbourg and his other Benefices, under the good Pleasure of the Court of Rome. Some of the Spruce Ecclesiasticks of this City, envious at this young Prelates Advancement, call him Fortune's Mignon, in being raised to the Archbishoprick of Rheims, that he may enjoy, with all the rest of his Honours, that also of Crowning the King. But notwithstanding these Coronation Preparations, it is suspected that it will be put off beyond the 15th of October next; and some doubt if it will be performed at all this Year.
